

Knitting Lounge Chair

SoMe Captions

- Ib Kofod-Larsen's iconic Knitting Chair reimagined with a walnut frame and in a range of upholstery options including plush sheepskin.
- Developed by the furniture designer Ib Kofod-Larsen in the 1950s, the Knitting Chair is updated with a walnut frame and even more upholstery options – including plush sheepskin for a natural feel.
- The distinctive design of Ib Kofod-Larsen's timeless Knitting Chair is meticulously handcrafted in Sweden by skilled artisans. Now available with a walnut frame, the embracing piece merges traditional craftsmanship techniques with modern technology to create an unforgettable and timeless design of the highest quality.
- The Knitting Chair affirmed furniture designer Ib Kofod-Larsen's reputation as a master of proportion and unexpected, sculptural form. The reissued design is now available with a walnut frame.
- One of Denmark's most notable designers, Ib Kofod-Larsen's distinctive furniture features natural materials, sculptural lines and elegant silhouettes. Shown here in walnut and sheepskin.
- Despite being designed in the early 1950s, the Knitting Chair still has a place in contemporary interiors.
- Sit back and relax in the Knitting Chair, shaped to follow the natural contours of the body.
- The Knitting Chair was first released in 1951 and has since been put back into production by MENU, offered in a range of wood and upholstery options – including walnut and sheepskin.
- Ib Kofod-Larsen's Knitting Chair. Recently rereleased, the modern classic is now available with a walnut frame.